Sir

I have the honour to inform you that the present building of the Anglo-Vernacular School at Hunsur is too small to accommodate all the classes. It is necessary to provide an additional building suited for the school. The Assistant Commanding Royal Engineer Bangalore states that "correspondence is now taking place with the Mysore Durbar regarding the disposal of the whole of the Hunsur buildings to them". I request that if these buildings are purchased by Government they may be pleased to grant building No 2 -Store and Office-for the purpose of the Anglo-Vernacular School in order that the demand for increased accommodation may be met.
